Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

Madame Jusserand, wife of the ambassador of France, accompanied by the counselor of the embassy, M. Chausse, and the military attaché, Colonel Vignat, motored to Oakland, Va., this afternoon to attend the garden fete at Oakland House, Md. and Mrs. William Corcoran's beautiful place, which is being given for the joint benefit of the French relief fund and the Doudou Hospital at Leoburg. The ambassador, under whose patronage the entertainment is being given, was prevented by press of work from attending. Numerous prominent Washingtonians will be among those attending the fete.

Many interesting features have been arranged, and the beautiful garden of Oakland House, laid out after the formal Italian style, form a wonderful setting. A pageant of American history will be one of the most spectacular features of the program. Scenes have been arranged showing historic events from early New Amsterdam to the present time. Indians in their war paint will pitch their tents under the trees; pilgrims will sing their martial anthems; colonial belles and beaux will dance the stately minuet and the Virginia reel; Dutch children from early New Amsterdam will sing and dance, as they did on the bowling green. In addition, there will be a tennis duel, while the plantation melodies will be sung in costume, and rough riders and cowboys will recall the days of the Spanish war. Among those attending are Mrs. A. S. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. Henry Fairfax, Mrs. Buchanan, Mrs. Fairfax Harrison, Mrs. David Tennant, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Arthur Carter, Miss Nolan, Mrs. Oxnard, Mrs. Sarah, Mrs. E. B. White, Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. Morgan Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McClean.

Visitors will have an opportunity to buy fancy articles, candy, groceries, and refreshments of various kinds, such as ice cream, cake, and sandwiches. A thoroughbred pig and lamb will be offered as prizes and orange trees in full fruit will contribute to the novel setting.

Colonel John H. Brown, U. S. A., and Mrs. Hewson expect to return to Washington from Bar Harbor some time between October 20 and October 25. Mrs. Hewson's daughter, Miss George Scofield, who is listed among the debutantes of the season, is due to arrive home about the same time. Miss Scofield went West with the ambassador to Japan, George W. Guthrie and Mrs. Guthrie, and spent some time with them at the Panama-Pacific exposition before they sailed for Japan. Later she joined her mother at Bar Harbor.

THE BEST TEST
Is the Test of Time.

Years ago this Washington resident told of good results from using Doan's Kidney Pills. Now Mrs. Truman confirms the former statement—says there has been no return of the trouble. Can Washington people ask for more convincing testimony?

Mrs. G. E. Truman, 506 Tenth St., S. E., Washington, says: "I was in a bad way from bladder trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me much annoyance. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and was cured." (Statement given December 5th, 1912.)

NO RETURN OF THE TROUBLE.
On July 24th, 1914, Mrs. Truman said: "I had had no kidney trouble since I used Doan's Kidney Pills. Others of the family take this medicine occasionally when the kidneys aren't acting just right and find it as represented."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Truman has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.
